

■ Sample PHI-Style Document (Fake Data Only)

Patient Information

Name: Jonathan M. Carter

DOB: 02/14/1985

Gender: Male

Patient ID: PHX-2025-00983

Address: 4215 Evergreen Lane, Apt. 3B, Brookhaven, NY, 11719

Phone: +1 (631) 555-8472

Insurance Provider: Harbor Health Insurance Group

Policy No.: HHG-4472819

Admission Details

Admission Date: 09/05/2025

Admitting Physician: Dr. Elaine Roberts, MD (Internal Medicine)

Reason for Admission: Chest pain, shortness of breath, fatigue

Admitting Diagnosis (ICD-10): I20.0 — Unstable Angina

Past Medical History

- Hypertension (diagnosed 2014)
- Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus (diagnosed 2017)
- Seasonal Asthma (childhood onset)
- Appendectomy (surgery in 2008)
- Family History: Father—Coronary Artery Disease, Mother—Type 2 Diabetes

Allergies

- Penicillin (rash, hives)
- Peanuts (mild anaphylaxis)

Medications Prior to Admission

- Metformin 500mg BID
- Lisinopril 20mg daily
- Albuterol Inhaler PRN
- Atorvastatin 10mg nightly

Hospital Course (Summary Notes)

09/05/2025 — Emergency Department

Patient presented with acute chest pain radiating to the left arm. EKG showed ST depression. Initial troponin elevated at 0.11 ng/mL. Started on aspirin, clopidogrel, and nitroglycerin drip.

09/06/2025 — Cardiology Consult

Echocardiogram revealed mild LV dysfunction, EF 45%. Coronary angiography showed 70% stenosis of LAD. Plan for stent placement.

09/07/2025 — Intervention

Underwent percutaneous coronary intervention (PCI) with stent placement in LAD. No complications. Troponin peaked at 0.89 ng/mL.

09/08/2025 — Recovery

Stable vitals. Started on dual antiplatelet therapy. Diabetes controlled with insulin sliding scale. Discharge planning initiated.

Discharge Medications

- Aspirin 81mg daily
- Clopidogrel 75mg daily
- Atorvastatin 40mg nightly
- Metformin 500mg BID
- Lisinopril 20mg daily
- Albuterol inhaler PRN

Follow-Up Instructions

- Cardiology follow-up in 2 weeks
- Primary care follow-up in 1 month
- Diet: Low sodium, diabetic diet, avoid saturated fats
- Activity: No strenuous exercise for 4 weeks; light walking recommended

Provider Signature

Dr. Elaine Roberts, MD

Attending Physician, Brookhaven Medical Center

Date: 09/09/2025